The Ancient Science of Ayurveda

Ayurveda literally means the science of life. It is part of the ancient Vedas and one of the oldest medical sciences in the world, dating back to 2000 BC. The wisdom of its ageless classical texts is valid even in the modern times.

Ayurveda offers a holistic solution for everything; from a healthy lifestyle, food habits and the art of positive living to treatment, management and the cure of chronic ailments without any harmful side effects. The combination of Vedic philosophy and health practices form the basis of the activities offered at our centre, Atmasantulana Village .

Atmasantulana Village was established in 1982. It is one of the first and largest Ayurveda centers in India. Our centre is situated between the two metro cities Mumbai and Pune, 650m above sea level, close to the Indrayani River, in a quiet rural area. Atmasantulana Village is surrounded by beautiful mountains and lush greenery. Our village has been designed based on the science of "Vaastu Shastra" (Indian Feng Shui) since it's foundation. Different courses of treatment are offered to healthy people for 'Wellness' as well as patients with serious diseases such as heart ailments, arthritis, diabetes, asthma, paralysis, kidney disorders, obesity, spinal disorders, brain and nervous disorders, cancer, HIV AIDS and so on.

Dr. Shri Balaji Tambe, is the founder and source of inspiration for all the activities carried out at Atmasantulana Village. He has achieved worldwide repute as an Ayurvedic doctor, particularly for the treatment of diseases such as heart ailments, diabetes, blood pressure and other chronic ailments. He has received many awards in recognition of his work and has served as a member of the Pharmacopoeia Committee with the Government of India. Besides his work in Ayurveda, Dr. Shri Balaji Tambe is looked upon as a spiritual guide by many of the residents and visitors, for helping them to achieve spiritual well-being and upliftment.

We have a dedicated, multi-national team of qualified Ayurvedic doctors, well trained therapists and staff who make Atmasantulana Village one of the most well known and authentic Ayurveda centres in the world.

Our centre offers an authentic Ayurvedic Panchkarma programme, a space to relax and rejuvenate or just to enjoy the peace of a spiritual environment. As our centre attracts a regular stream of visitors and guests from Europe and many other countries, English is the main medium of communication, though many staff members are also fluent in German, French and local languages.

The Holistic Health Programmes

The Centre offers unique residential holistic programmes for 'Panchakarma' and 'Wellness'.

These are very effective for the purification and rejuvenation of the body and mind. Both the Panchakarma and Wellness Packages include participation in Yoga, Meditation, Lectures, a properly balanced Diet, Lifestyle correction and Healing Music.

What is Santulan Panchakarma and how it will benefit you ?

All diseases and health problems start with an imbalance in the body's metabolic system. Disturbances in the gastrointestinal tract and a build-up of impurities in the body create hardness in the cells, tissues and joints. This reduces the state of health and vitality and prepares a base for the development of disease.

The major causes of imbalance in the metabolism are:

- An improper and irregular diet.
- The absence of relaxation techniques and meditation practices.
- Tension and stress.
- Lack of self observation.

The outstanding benefits of Panchakarma therapy were already described in the ancient scriptures. In the "Charaka Samhita" it is said that in a person who is purified by Panchakarma the digestive fire is stimulated; any imbalance is corrected; health is maintained; all the sensory organs achieve maximum efficiency; psychological and intellectual functions are improved; the skin gets a healthy glow; vitality, strength and immunity improves; potency, rejuvenation and anti-aging are the results.

It is also said that when a disease is treated only with medicine it can recur at the first opportunity, but if the imbalance is corrected by Panchakarma then the chances of recurrence of the disease are minimal.

Our centre offers unique residential programmes for 'Panchakarma' and 'Wellness'.

For guests visiting us from overseas and suffering from a chronic disease our doctors advice you to come two days before the Panchkarma therapy begins and stay one day afterwards.

Santulan Wellness Package

The demands of modern life impose increasing stress and tension on everybody. The challenge in maintaining good health under these circumstances increases the necessity for taking a complete break and refreshing & rejuvenating your body, mind and soul. Many a times people do not feel healthy though pathological investigations show an absence of disease.

The Holistic Health Programmes

Ayurveda does not describe health as the absence of disease, but as 'a state of mind and body, where the body elements & the body's digestive fire are balanced, the whole body, senses, mind and soul are nourished, giving the feeling of contentment and happiness'.

Our wellness package is designed to relax and rejuvenate your body, relieve your mind of stress and revitalise your energy, so that you can enjoy life to the utmost.

Prevention is better than cure, so for those already blessed with good health, the Wellness Package provides the ideal rejuvenation treat for keeping toned at all levels and attaining a healthy glow.

The Wellness of each visitor is important to us. Keeping this in mind our centre has been designed based on the science of " Vaastu Shastra " (Indian Feng Shui) since its foundation.

* Note: Exact number of treatments may vary according to the length of the package and the individual's state of health.

Some of the above mentioned therapies are also offered more than once. The package includes occasional rest days as required between the therapies.

For guests visiting us from abroad, it is advisable to keep a day for acclimatization before starting the treatment programme.

Which therapies do we offer in the Santulan Treatment Programme?

In our Santulan Treatment Programme we are offering a great variety of highly efficient and time proven Ayurvedic therapies. All the oils, ghees and medicines used are produced authentically in our village pharmacy, as per traditional Ayurvedic guidelines.

Abhyanga a stimulating, strong but gentle massage. Detoxifying, deeply relaxing, enabling a harmonious flow of pran (vitalising energy) throughout the body.

Svedan the application of oil on the body, followed by a steam bath. Allows toxins to be released from the cells, promoting relaxation of the muscles and the entire body.

Antarsnehan intake of a medicated ghee (clarified butter) that is absorbed throughout the body. Removes toxins, creating softness and elasticity throughout the body.

Virechan (purgative) medication for the complete cleansing of the gastrointestinal tract and bowels.

Basti medicated oil with a decoction of herbs is given as an enema to clean the colon and restore the muscle tone.

Hrud Basti especially rejuvenating for the heart. Strengthening the heart muscle and increasing the strength and vitality of the organ. Helps in removing blockages in the arteries and improving circulation.

Shiro Basti special medicated oil is poured into a 'well' (formed of dough) on the head. An effective therapy in the cases of severe migraine, insomnia, memory improvement etc.

Shiro Dhara a steady stream of warm oil is gently poured on the forehead, balancing the space element in the body. Induces deep relaxation and the sense of expansion.

Pinda Svedan the synchronised application of a poultice on the body, consisting of rice cooked in a herbal decoction. An effective therapy for treating arthritis, paralysis and muscular disorders.

Sandhi Basti a special treatment for strengthening the bones and joints. Used to treat all types of arthritis.

Netra Basti a treatment to improve the eyesight. Used in the cases of conjunctivitis, glaucoma and helps to correct long/short-sightedness.

Which therapies do we offer in the Santulan Treatment Programme?

Nasya thorough massage to the head, shoulders and neck, followed by the administration of a medicine through the nose. An effective therapy for sinus inflammations, disturbed memory, irritating sounds in the ear (e.g. tinnitus) and brain problems.

Facial a gentle but deeply cleansing and exfoliating massage, with vital ingredients that help to soften, cool and nourish the skin. Stimulates new cell growth, giving the skin a healthy glow.

Kundalini Massage 'You are as young as your spine', so the first step towards good health is having a healthy spine. This unique yogic massage technique was devised by Dr. Shri Balaji Tambe, following many years of expertise in treating chronic back problems. Revitalises the spine and stimulates the circulation throughout the body.

Relaxation Massage A gentle and soothing massage. Warm oil and tender and smooth strokes are used, to de-stress your complete body and mind. This Relaxation Massage helps to pacify vata and promotes deep and sound sleep.

Karnapuram a gentle massage of the ears and surrounding area, followed by the administration of a warm medicated oil in the ears. Beneficial in treating ear problems.

adabhyanga an ancient therapy which helps to remove the excessive heat and toxins in the body. In this process, the feet are first cleaned with warm water, followed by the application of a medicated ghee and foot massage using a special bowl (kansya - a bronze alloy). Gives many other remarkable results such as, opening the meridians in the body, pacifying vata dosha, enhancing memory, helping to improve the eyesight, helping to remove the burning sensation in the feet and eyes etc.

Which therapies do we offer in the Santulan Treatment Programme?

Foot Reflexology as all the body organs have corresponding pressure points on the foot sole, the application of focused pressure on specific marma (reflex) points on the sole, stimulates the functioning of the body organs.

Head Massage This relaxing massage with Santulan Village Hair Oil helps to improve the circulation in the scalp, promoting hair growth. It improves the luster and the overall health of the hair. This specific therapy helps to relax the body completely and promotes a deep and sound sleep.

Spine Potli a warmed poultice consisting of a blend of special herbs is applied on the spinal region. This is a very effective therapy in the cases of degenerative spinal problems, as it nourishes the spinal cord and nerves.

Kati (Spine) Basti a localised basti given on the spine, for its strengthening and rejuvenation.

Janu (Knee) Basti a warmed poultice consisting of a blend of special herbs is applied on the knees. This is a very effective therapy in the cases of joint degeneration, arthritis, rheumatism as well as increasing the flexibility of the joints.

Uttar Basti this therapy is valuable for gynaecological health. It purifies the uterus, regulates menstruation, maintains the balance of the hormones and is especially effective in the cases of bladder and uterine infections.

Uttar Dhoop smoke therapy for the female genital area. Beneficial for uterine health and treatment of mild and chronic infections.

Udvartan A re-vitalizing massage with a fragrant, medicinal herbal powder mixture and warm oil. This special massage helps to burn excessive fat, smoothens and rejuvenates the skin.

Health Consultation from an individual pulse diagnosis reading, the Ayurvedic doctors determine the constitution and any dosha imbalances, and suggest remedial dietary tips.

Constitution Consultation an extensive prakruti parikshan (constitution analysis) and advice programme is also offered.

Ayurvedic Diet, Yoga, Meditation & Music

You Are What You Eat.

The Santulan concept of diet and food is known as Annayoga.

The meals are planned according to the different seasons of the year, considering the balance of vata, pitta and kapha doshas; the maintenance of agni (the digestive fire), the six different rasas (tastes) and ultimately, the seven *dhatu*s (body tissues - from blood to vitality).

The meals are purely vegetarian and consist of a balanced Indian menu of rice, pulses, vegetables, soups, salads, etc. The guests are offered different planned menus for each day.

Organic Farming

Some of the fresh food includes our home grown organic vegetables, grains and fruits grown without the use of added chemicals, pesticides and artificial fertilisers.

As natural, fresh milk is essential to good health cows are reared which provide the majority of the daily milk requirements for the village.

Yoga, Meditation & Healing Music

The ultimate aim in life is to attain peace and harmony for the body, mind and soul. To help in this process Santulan Kriya Yoga (SKY) and Meditation are an integral part of our daily programme. SKY sessions are offered every morning and are a well balanced routine of Kriyas, Pranayam, Stretching and Relaxation. The daily meditations take place in our "Aumkar Temple". They include Healing Music which is a unique research oriented treatment of which also live concerts are performed in India and abroad since many years.
